

BODIES RECOVERED.

THREE SORROWFUL FUNERALS THE PAST WEEK.

Remains of the Marine City Victims of the Lyon Disaster all Accounted for.

Marine City has been the scene of three most sorrowful funerals during the past week, as a consequence of the foundering of the steamer Jno. B. Lyon on Tuesday of last week. The remains interred here were: Wheelman W. C. Tyler, Tuesday; Capt. Albert Senghas, Wednesday; Second Mate Geo. Tyler, Thursday. The remains of each were conveyed from the noon boat to their late homes where short services were held, interment in the city cemetery following immediately. S. Ward Lodge, F. & A. M. conducted the remains of their late Brother, Capt. Senghas, to its last resting place. Fortress Lodge, K. of P., of which the late Geo. Tyler was a member, conducted the funeral Thursday afternoon.

Marine City has been so completely stirred to sympathy for the unfortunate departed ones and their bereaved relatives and friends, that the foregoing scenes were indeed the most sorrowful ever witnessed in this city. Though sorrowful and hard to bear, yet it is a matter of consolation for those who are left to mourn the loss of dear ones, to know that the remains have been recovered and are now laid to rest.

Profound sympathy is expressed on every hand for the wives, mother and other relatives and friends of the departed ones.

When the steamer was taken to the beach at this port, on her way down. He leaves a heart-broken widow and one son, Victor Tyler, to mourn his sad end.

George Tyler was second mate of the Lyon, having been in her all season. Geo. was about 25 years of age and possessed many splendid traits of character, chief among which might be mentioned his tender care and devotion for and to his mother. He was of a sunny disposition and had hosts of friends among old and young. He was a member of Fortress Lodge K. of P., this city.

The Globe joins in extending heartfelt sympathy to the sorrow-stricken families.

Today's Detroit Free Press states that no trace can be found of the sunken steamer, but that the body of a man about 40 years old, having on a life preserver marked "Steamer John B. Lyon," was washed upon the beach at Conneaut Friday. The dead man is thought to be Michael Purcell, of Escanaba.

fr
h e M w
n o N
h
T
M
it
a t
n
G

13,1900
eck and in the water after an even keel. When the hold instantly filled.
tion on top of a piece of
for several hours while the
had given up hope, but the widow and two children, a
ty. He was known as a ted two years ago in the pey, in a snow storm. Part n off by lifesavers.
the captain and part of the
nd mate and refused to go.
er of S. Ward Lodge F. & dent Foresters. He was at friends here who regret ta residents of Marine City
casts a gloom of sorrow
lth all summer and had the place of Fred Koenig, this

A
B
C
D
E
F
G
H
I
J
K
L
M
N
O
P
Q
R
S
T
U
V
W
X
Y
Z